

Dated the 18th June 2018

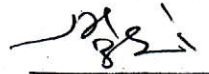

PRESS NOTE

As part of the observance of “World Day to Combat Desertification” on the theme “Land has true value - invest in it”, a Mass Tree Planting Programme was organized by Forest Extension and Publicity Division of the Department of Environment and Forests at Joggers Park area, ward No. 10 with the active support and participation of Smti Sheela Singh, Councilor Ward No.10, Smti Vinita Malhotra, Vice Chairperson, Municipal Council along with the staff of the PBMC, Forest Department and local public in the event by planting shade bearing and ornamental plants.

Addressing the gathering the Chief Guest on the occasion Shri Suneel Anchipaka, IAS, Secretary, PBMC emphasized to plant more trees in the available area of PBMC to support combat Desertification in future.

Earlier the councilor Smti Sheela Singh welcomed the gathering and requested one and all to plant more trees and nurse till its complete growth. She also appreciated the functioning of the Forest department in the expansion of the city forest, urged members of each household in the area to plant a sapling which would beautify the area and also provide shade to the commuters in the park. The Divisional Forest Officer, Forest Extension & Publicity Division, Shri Ayyub Hassan proposed the vote of thanks.

The entire programme was organized by the Shri. S.K.Roy, Range Officer and staff of Forest Extension and Publicity Division, Department of Environment and Forests.

प्रभागीय वन अधिकारी 18/6/18

Divisional Forest Officer

वन विस्तार एवं प्रचार प्रभाग

Forest Extension & Publicity Division